

Communication: The Second C of Leadership Presence.

*Leaders with high levels of presence are strong communicators!
They are:*

Present in the conversation.

Are focused to listen at all levels and listen to learn.

Pause before speaking, conveying a message of thoughtfulness, respect, and confidence.

Can read their audience.

Are attuned to both what is and isn't being said and analyze the situation without judgement.

Ask curious questions to gain further understanding.

Communicate clearly and concisely.

Present their information/request/directive respectfully, using clear, crisp, understandable terms.

Executive coaching can help you sharpen your leadership skills! Check out the possibilities:

<https://www.epexecutivecoaching.com/>